

Employment Opportunity

UnBQ is inviting applications for Sessional Instructors to teach University courses such as Math, Accounting, Economics, Sociology, Psychology, etc. We are looking to update our roster of sessional instructors for University nuhelot'ine thaiyots'ı nistameyimâkanak Blue Quills. These are part-time, casual contract positions for courses offered per term: September – December, January – April, May – June.

Aligning with the BQ philosophy, vision and mission statements, we are looking for a talented, dedicated and enthusiastic person to join our team.

Responsibilities:

- Working with existing course syllabi, plan and organize instructions in ways that maximize student learning in an interactive classroom for adult students.
- Create and distribute educational content (notes, summaries, assignments etc.);
- Display an ability to interpret and evaluate the theories of their field or discipline;
- Teach a course load appropriate to their field or discipline;
- Duties include instruction and grading of university/college level courses;
- Ensure the completion of the course outlines, syllabi and student records.

Qualifications:

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills;
- Well-organized and committed;
- Creative and energetic;
- Degree in a specialized subject, preferably at least a Masters.
- Preference will be given to candidates with extensive knowledge of Indigenous life and experience teaching adults.

Posted: April 24, 2018

Please submit a CV/ resume with references to Christine Houle, Chief Financial Officer tinah@bluequills.ca or by fax (780)645-5215. This is an open competition until suitable candidates are found. Only applicants selected for interviews will be contacted.